NATIONAL REPUBLICAN. MONETARY MATTERS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., MARCH 16, 1881.

AN OLD GIRL.

Red paint blooms on her withered cheeks, Gay ringlets toss upon the air;
In port, coquettish tones she squeaks,
And imitates the baby stare.
She shows a dainty little shoe,
This sweet old girl of—fifty-two.

She's broken lovers' hearts a score; The finest men she might have had— She trembles lest there may be more Die for herself, or else go mad, In truth, no lover yet would woo This sprightly girl of-fifty-two.

She modestly averts her eyes; She hides the blush that will not come; She gives the most heart-rending sighs; She giggles, and she bites her thumb. She wears bright colors, not a few, This charming girl of-fifty-two.

Of naughty men she is afmid-What their intentions are she knows; Her timid acts are neally played; she runs away, but never goes; And bravely faces dangers, too, This guileless girl of—fifty-two.

She still has hopes that some fine day A man, to claim her heart, will kneel; And often thinks just what she'll say Before she faints, and how she'll feel When kissed—for that's entirely new To this old girl of-fifty-two.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL NEWS.

Wall Street Transactions-The Latest Quotations in Stocks and Bonds-New York and Baltimore Produce Markets-London and Paris Money Markets.

The following observations on the transactions in the financial market yesterday, together with highest, lowest, and closing stock quotations, are furnished by the banking-house of H. D. Cooke, jr., & Co., 1492 F street, Washington, D. C.:

The market was strong at opening this morning, advancing 146114 per cent., the latter Reading and Nashville and Chattanooga. On the first board prices be-came dull and declined from that time until the closing, at which point the list shows a decline of from 1/2 to 31; per cent. We have had to-day purely a trader's market, there being no outside news to affect it, and the fluctuations being caused entirely by the manipulations which were being carried on. There were only two items of news carrent on 'Change to-day. One was the report that the Western Union Telegraph Company had applied for a temporary receiver to take charge of its affairs, and the other was the fact that the next quarterly dividend of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western will be one of 112 per cent. Until we have some further important developments we cannot look for any material change in prices other than that caused by the ordinary process of trading. Money louned at 6 per cent; toward the close at ; per cent.
